

There are a number of reasons parents call Community Partners for Safe Families. Some of these include:

- Housing crises, pending evictions, homelessness.
- Ongoing transportation problems that put employment and/or schooling at risk.
- Family members are experiencing mental health problems.
- Parents are overwhelmed and are having difficulty managing their children and home.
- Children in crisis because of parents' job loss, death in the family, or divorce.
- Domestic violence situations.
- Children with ongoing truancy and behavior problems which affect the entire family.
- Children who are reported to be unsupervised.

If you'd like more information about Community Partners for Safe Families, please call 1-800-752-7116 and ask for Community Partners.

To refer someone, you may call us at the number above or simply fill out the referral sheet on our website at www.scaninc.org.

SCAN

Preparing parents. Protecting children.

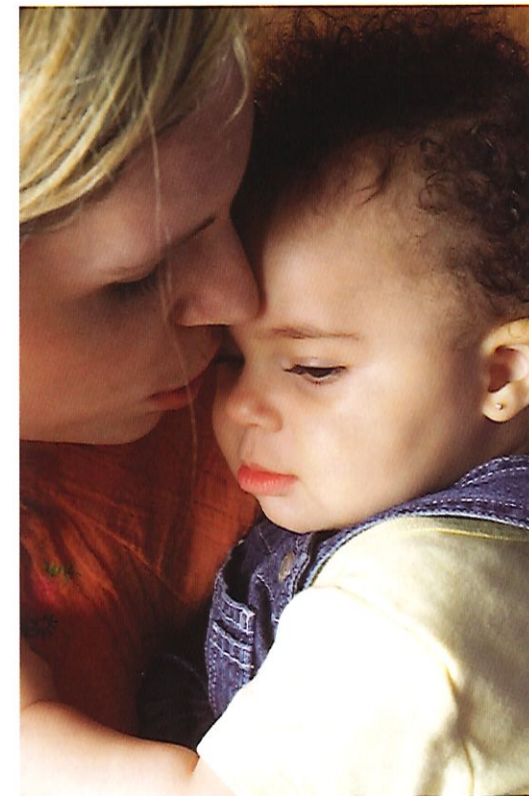

SCAN's services are available to all individuals regardless of race, color, gender, religious beliefs, sexual orientation, national origin, veteran status, age, and/or mental or physical disability. SCAN is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer.

This program is funded by the Indiana Department of Child Services.

© Copyright 2008 by SCAN, Inc.

When your family needs help, we're just a phone call away.

Community Partners for Safe Families

A program of SCAN and its partners serving Elkhart, Kosciusko, Marshall and St. Joseph counties.

What Is Community Partners For Safe Families?

Through Community Partners for Safe Families, SCAN, along with local social service agencies, offers parents help with situations that are interfering with their ability to manage their families. The goal of Community Partners is to provide families with in-home, one-on-one services that prevent child abuse or neglect.

Whether it's a housing crisis, or handling a mentally ill family member, coping with out-of-control children or providing relief in stressful situations, Community Partners can help you.

Does It Cost Anything?

No. Community Partners services are free of charge to families. It is funded by the Indiana Department of Child Services.

Who Does Community Partners For Safe Families Serve?

Families with children in the home who currently are not receiving services through Healthy Families programs and who are not currently DCS wards.

The Community Partners for Safe Families offers help to families living in the following counties:

- Elkhart
- Kosciusko
- Marshall
- St. Joseph

You can call Community Partners yourself or be referred by another person or agency.

For more information about Community Partners or how it can help your family call:

1-800-752-7116

Monday-Friday, 9am-6pm

Where Do I Start?

Just call 1-800-752-7116. We'll ask a few simple questions to make sure that Community Partners can help you. If we can, we'll refer you to one of our partners to begin working with your family.

Where Are These Services Located?

The Community Partners for Safe Families has expert service providers in every county it serves. All members of Community Partners act together to make sure a family's individual needs are met. If you would like more information about how Community Partners can help your family, please call SCAN at 1-800-752-7116 or (260) 421-5000.