

Elementary Athletics Code of Conduct

This code of conduct is an addendum to the Cougar code of conduct and the Student Code of Conduct, anything not explicitly stated in this code of conduct will automatically defer to those resources.

1. Grades

- a. When a student has a failing grade (D or F) in a classroom, the school principal or teacher can hold a student out of practice for a minimum of 30 minutes for a student to work at a study table during their practice time.
- b. If a student does not raise their grade up within a period of 2 weeks, then they will be removed from the team for the remainder of the season.

2. Behavior

- a. If a student is not conducting themselves appropriately during the school day, the principal or coach may decide to suspend or remove the student athlete from practices, games, or the entirety of the season.
