BULLDOG NEWS

RP Families,

The last nine weeks of the school year are off to a great start! Last week our Bulldogs celebrated their hard work and accomplishments during a school-wide assembly. Students used sign language while chanting our motto and mission. Students also partnered with a buddy in another grade and created a special handshake. Our goal is to create a school-wide handshake by the end of this school year. Tomorrow students will reunite with their buddy for our school-wide Bulldog Buddy Reading and Writing Day. Our older students are great role models for our younger students. Please make sure to ask your child about this special day that coincides with the solar eclipse.
